

Fannie Mae®

Disaster assistance for homeowners and renters impacted by Hurricane Ian

Fannie Mae is committed to assisting homeowners and renters affected by disasters. If your property or place of employment was impacted by Hurricane Ian, we can help you navigate the challenging disaster recovery process with resources like our Disaster Response Network.*

Fannie Mae's Disaster Response Network™ offers free support for homeowners and renters from HUD-approved housing counselors, including:

- Personalized recovery assessment and action plan
- Assistance with debt relief including bills, credit cards, and rent or mortgage payments
- Help with claims and denials (i.e., FEMA, insurance, and Small Business Administration)
- Online disaster recovery forums, tools, and educational resources
- Ongoing check-ins to help ensure a successful recovery

Services are available in English, Spanish, and other languages

People impacted by a disaster may also receive help from:

- U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD): www.hud.gov
- Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA): www.disasterassistance.gov
- American Red Cross: 1-800-733-2767

WARNING: Avoid scams

Scam artists offer fraudulent assistance to those affected by disasters. Always confirm the legitimacy of offers, never feel pressured to “take immediate action,” and, remember, mortgage help is FREE.
